

Specific Terms: Kollektive ECDN Services

The service-specific terms and conditions set out in this document ('Specific Terms') are incorporated in and apply to the SOW formed between NTT DATA and Client for the provision of Kollektive Enterprise Content Delivery Network (ECDN) Services (the 'Kollektive Services'), which Client acknowledges are Third-Party Services.

These Specific Terms are maintained by NTT DATA at this URL (or successor site) and may be updated by NTT DATA from time-to-time (effective upon publication).

1 Applicable Third-Party Terms

- 1.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, Client's (and its Users) use of and access to Kollektive Services, as procured through NTT DATA and/or used in connection with any Services provided by NTT DATA, are subject to and conditioned on Client's agreement to, and compliance with, the applicable Kollektive Terms of Service located at the following URL: <https://kollektive.com/eula-ntt> (or successor site maintained by Kollektive) ('Third-Party Terms').
- 1.2 Client expressly accepts and agrees to be bound by the applicable Third-Party Terms referenced in clause 1.1 above and, for purposes of such Third-Party Terms, references to 'you', 'Customer', or 'Client' (or any substantively similar term identifying the party subject thereto) will be interpreted to refer to Client and, as applicable, its relevant Users.
- 1.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, if required to comply with NTT DATA's agreements with the applicable third-party supplier or provider, NTT DATA (or the applicable third-party supplier or provider) may amend the Third-Party Terms, including the location of the attached or referenced documents, from time to time by notifying Client, either through disclosure of the updated version or by publishing the updated version (as applicable).
- 1.4 Client must promptly notify NTT DATA of any actual or suspected breach of any applicable Third-Party Terms and further agrees to provide reasonable assistance to NTT DATA in order to protect the applicable third-party supplier's or provider's rights in connection with the third-party products (including software) or services.
